

The Director
Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

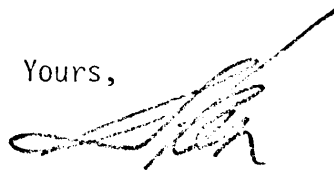

14 May 1980

Dear Herman,

STAT So much has happened since your letter of September and our chance meeting in the White House before one of your trips to Egypt, yet I recalled the other day your story of young [redacted] the eleven-year-old who wants to be a CIA intelligence analyst. We have just produced a new booklet on the Agency. It occurred to me that he might enjoy having it. In any event, I'm sending along a couple of copies in case you see him again.

All the very best.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Enclosure

(2)

The Honorable Herman Eilts
Boston University
745 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston Massachusetts 02215